

Case Study Photovoltaics

Queen's University
Kingston, ON

264 solar modules (each 75 watts capacity)

Grid connected to feed excess power back to the grid during consumption periods

- Architecturally integrated to shade the windows against summer overheating
- Generates 20,300 kWh/year and reduces GHG emissions by 22 tonnes annually